

Final Agenda

Workshop on Marine Litter National Source Inventories in Seychelles

5 September

Day 1 –

Time	Subject	Key persons
8:00 – 8:30	Arrival and registration.
8:30 – 9:00	Opening remarks Opening remarks from MoE, UNEP, and introductions of participants	NEMA, UNEP, all
9:00 – 11:00	Introductory session Objectives of the meeting, overview of background and context globally and in Seychelles, intro to the impacts of marine litter and why we should act, and presentations from all coastal counties on current actions and priorities on marine litter and how they view the scope of the problem.	UNEP – Jillian Campbell MoE – Fredrick Kinlock County representatives All participants
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee break and group photo
11:30 – 12:30	National Source Inventories for marine litter Presentation of National Source Inventory concept, link to SDGs, discussion of main sources of marine litter, such as waste management facilities, industrial areas, large cities, and pathways for marine litter, such as rivers, wastewater plants, etc. Key sources in Seychelles and their challenges	UNEP – Jillian Campbell MoE – Fredrick Kinlock
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch break
13:30 – 14:30	Monitoring marine litter and its impacts Assessment of existing baseline data internationally and in Seychelles, existing marine litter monitoring methodologies and ongoing monitoring projects, impact monitoring, site selection criteria, priority data needs and existing gaps.	CSIRO Julio Moustache, summarize data collection
14:30 – 15:00	Coffee break
15:00- 16:30	Linking data to action Capacity development needs assessment, prioritizing action, how data can inform interventions and policy, successes and challenges of current legislation	UNEP MoE
16:30 – 17:00	Interactive brainstorming discussion This interactive discussion will explore how to bring together multiple sources of information, identification of priorities, areas along rivers and coast for further sampling, and will feed into the final discussion of the creation of a national source inventory and action plan for marine litter and microplastics in Seychelles.	All participants
17:00	End of Day 2	